

THE DAWN QURANIC INSTITUTE OFFICIAL LAUNCH

The Event:

The Australian Islamic Mission's official launch of The Dawn Quranic Institute (معهد الفجر القرآني) was held on Saturday 15th March 2008 at the Emporium Function Centre in Bankstown, NSW.

People:

Br Abdussalam Ali, Director of the Institute; Sh Mutasim Al-Jarrah, Principal of the Institute and Imam of the Punchbowl Musallah; Br Riyad Qasim, Founding Teacher; Sh Khaled Bouchafaa, Master of Ceremonies; and many others were involved in organising the event.

Guests:

More than one hundred invited guests attended including Sh Yahya Safi, Sh Fida Al-Majzoub, Sh AbdulMoez Nafti, Sh Hatim Esa, Sh Sayed Kandil, Sh Rabee Baytieh and Sh Abdul Atheem (Melbourne), Dr Tamer Al-Kahil, and Cr Khodr Saleh.

Special Guest:

AIM was delighted to have Dr Mohammad Al-Majali as the special guest. Dr Al-Majali is the Dean of the Faculty of Shariah (Islamic Studies) at the University of Jordan and deputy chairman of The Conservation of the Holy Quran Society in Jordan www.hoffaz.org.

Program:

Sh Khaled as the MC started off the proceedings followed by Br Wassim Malas' recitation of the Quran. Br Abdussalam then presented an overview of AIM's initiation and development of the Institute. Dr Al-Majali in his keynote address highlighted the value of the Quran and particularly emphasised the importance of living by its ethics and principles. Sh Mutasim then outlined the process of obtaining an Ijazah (Certificate).

Forty students were then awarded their certificates of achievement including six who received the Ijazah (four brothers and two sisters).

